

LA

Los Angeles Times Magazine

GEORGE CLOONEY

A Serious Man

Temple Emanuel
Reimagined

Wrapper's Delight
Amazing Gifts

WHAT GIVES

NO THEMES, NO CATEGORIES, NO GIMMICKS—JUST THE VERY BEST GIFTS AND BONBONS TO BRIGHTEN THE SEASON by MALLERY ROBERTS MORGAN

Inspired by French bicycle designs of the 1950s and '60s, Linus Bikes are the hippest wheels in town. Matching leather saddles and grips? Rattan baskets? Brass bells? C'est si bon! 310-857-7777, linusbike.com.

Let your guppies scale the heights in the Fishscape 2.5-gallon, handblown fishbowl with mountain range by Aruliden for the Turkish company Gaia & Gino. $140, aplusrstore.com.

If you like your batches small, your potatoes virgin and your vodka handcrafted, then Karlsson's Gold is the spirit of the season. And the bottle is pretty cool. $35, Gelson's, Bristol Farms, karlssonsvodka.com.

Georg Jensen's Alfredo pitcher and salt and pepper mills turn ordinary dining into an art form. Plus, they're made of stainless steel, so mere mortals might actually afford them. $150-$165, 310-860-1410, georgjensen.com.

Givenchy by Riccardo Tisci's chic Obsedia Minaudière is emblazoned with a photographic print of a bird of paradise. In other words, evening-bag heaven. $1,700, Barneys New York, 310-276-4400, barneys.com.